Counsels and Maxims

For Young Men

LOOK upward, not downward; forward, not backward; and press on to the goal.

We sleep and dream that life is beauty; we awake and find that it is also duty.

Not all who go to church are good, but the best people in every community are churchgoers.

We are weak enough with religion; what should we be without it?

The best recommendation you can give of your religion is your own life.

Your faith is more precious than all the riches of earth, more glorious than all its honors, for it leads to riches that corrupt not, and to glories that fade not.

The Church does not create new doctrines; she is the custodian and expositor of Christ's doctrines.

A moment's prayerful attention each morning to offer the works of the day to God will make the whole day a pleasing prayer.

Be generous, but not at the expense of others' time or property.

Be grateful, because gratitude for favors received is a potent means of securing still greater favors; ingratitude dries up favors at their source.

An ungrateful son is rightly detested by God and man.

Son, support the old age of thy father, and grieve him not in his life. And if his understanding fail, have patience with him, and despise him not when thou art in thy strength, for the relieving of the father will not be forgotten.

Kind words are the music of the world, and politeness its polish.

All pleasures are deadly which are not in harmony with God's commandments.

He who walks in the presence of God makes steady progress on his journey, and never stumbles.

He who gives to the poor gives to Christ.

The man who receives the Sacraments but once a year is shielded by thin armor.

No one is good for everything; everyone is good for something. Do your bit, and do it well.

If you want to be somebody, do something. Don't be one of those who could do something if they wanted to.

If we waited for perfection before starting, little would be accomplished.

Yesterday is past, tomorrow is uncertain, today is short; if you have anything to do, do it now. Procrastination is the thief of time.

The resourceful man is one who, when he cannot do a thing one way, does it another.

A true man will not fail to acknowledge when he is wrong, nor to express regret when he occasions hurt to others.

What a noble weapon is silence! It turns aside the tempest of anger; before it hatred and malice are abashed, if not defeated; slander and detraction are hushed in its presence; idle gossip soon grows tired in the face of its rebuke. If we could but keep silence, the world would be rid of half its evils.

Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer. And you know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in himself.

Avoid bad shows, bad reading, bad company; for he that loves danger shall perish in it.

Be not lead away by the crowd, for many follow the broad way that leads to destruction.

To neglect prayer, assistance at Holy Mass, and the frequentation of the Sacraments, is to be a bad Catholic and a bad citizen.

If you pray, you will certainly save your soul; if you do not, you will certainly lose it.

Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth, and let thy heart be in that which is good in the days of thy youth; and know that for all these, God will bring thee to judgment.

Beware of those who set one standard of morals for men and another for women. The girl you marry has a right to expect the same innocence and purity in you that you require of her.

Self-restraint is a sign of the man; self-indulgence signifies the brute.

Courtship is not a time for mere sociability, much less for dissipation, but a pleasant period in which to study the character of the one you hope to marry. In choosing a wife, remember that beauty is only skin deep; whereas character and a good disposition are of long life.

Never keep regular company with a girl whom you have no intention of marrying; it is an injustice to her and a danger to yourself.

Never think of marrying a girl who does not inspire you with reverence and incite you to virtue.

Do not marry until you are able to support a wife, and then marry a girl who is satisfied to live on your income.

The girl who invites familiarities and is loose during courtship will hardly be faithful as a wife. Shun her.

There will be difficulties enough in married life if you start right; therefore choose a girl of your own faith.

Since love is blind, it will pay you to pray for guidance and to seek good advice before assuming the burdens of married life.

The passions in man are like the forces of nature; they are useful as obedient servants, but merciless tyrants as masters.

Believe me, the mortification of the senses, — of the sight, the hearing, the tongue, — is more beneficial than to wear a chain of iron and the hairshirt.

God has entrusted to your care a human body which must be returned to Him. See that you are not found wanting in your stewardship.

It is shameful to commit sin, but never a shame to confess sin to one's confessor.

Young men should not hesitate to consult their confessors in or out of the confessional about their vocation. That is part of a priest's duty.

When in doubt, pray for guidance, for it is written "Ask and you shall receive; knock and it shall be opened to you."

For Married Men

HUSBANDS, love your wives, as Christ also loved the Church, and delivered Himself up for it.

A husband should strive to continue after marriage the manly chivalry, strength, generosity and tenderness that made him so attractive in the days of his courtship.

If you cannot find peace and happiness in the family circle, where will you find them? Certainly not outside in the world, for the world cares nothing for you.

Reverence is the product of the home, and what is learned in the home is never forgotten.

The unselfish husband will never be unmindful of the great burdens and sacrifices which wifehood and motherhood lay upon a woman.

The chief blessings to be sought in married life are congenial companionship and spiritual helpfulness.

If a husband does not find his chief interest and pleasure in his home, there is something wrong with him, or with his wife, or with both.

After marriage your wife should come first in your affections, but this does not mean that you are to neglect your mother or father, whom you can never repay for all they have done for you.

If husband and wife are properly mated, co-operation takes the place of "bossing."

The Church is opposed to every kind of birth control that does not result from self-control, for the reason that such practice is contrary to the laws of nature.

Parents may advise, but should never force upon their children any particular career in life.

A Catholic education is a far better legacy to children than money and worldly advantages.

Jealousy is a vice so mean that its possessor is always ashamed to acknowledge it.

A loving soul illumines and warms the house better than a blazing hearth and a lighted lamp.

The married who live in harmony and mutual love can defy the world; without this unity, all the world cannot make them happy.

If children are not all they should be, it is usually the fault of the parents.

The true way to win the respect and obedience of your children is to show them good example.

A father who neglects prayer, Mass and the Sacraments, must never wonder when his sons do likewise.

The father should be the head, the mother the heart of the home.

Mutual consideration and forbearance are sure to make married life happy.

Marriage is not a permit to violate the laws of God and of nature.

Inordinate indulgence and race suicide are sure to wreck the happiness of married life.

You cannot have the respect of your children if you disrespect their mother.

Children bring blessings to every good home, and they are one of the surest guarantees of the unity and fidelity of the husband and the wife.

When parents make their homes unpleasant and disagreeable, the children will naturally go elsewhere for their recreation.

If any man have not care of his own, and especially of those of his house, he hath denied the faith and is worse than an infidel.

And at all times remember your contract:

I, N. N., take thee, N. N., for my lawful wife, to have and to hold, from this day forward, for better, for worse, for richer, for poorer, in sickness and in health, until death do us part.

Counsels and Maxims

For Unmarried Men

IF we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

No man can serve two masters. . . .
He that is not with Me is against Me.

You can work for God and religion, no matter what your other occupation.

Good works without grace are like a body without a soul.

How can any Catholic man expect to be able to understand, to defend, and to appreciate his religion, when all his reading is from non-Catholic books and newspapers?

If we would impress others with the importance of religion and faith, we should let them see the fruits of these virtues in our own lives.

Without trouble much good would be absent from the world. Fortitude, self-sacrifice, mercy, and the like presuppose the existence of evils that call them forth.

Selfishness is one of the most blinding of sins; it closes the eyes of its victim to everyone except himself.

It is not what we do, or where we are, but what we are that counts.

It does not take brains to find fault. Try to get the other man's viewpoint.

To refuse to change your mind is no proof that you are right.

To resist moods and do the very opposite of what they suggest is a healthy form of self-conquest and hurts no one.

He that hath the substance of this world, and shall see his brother in need, and shall withhold aid from him, how doth the charity of God abide in him?

Most men eat and drink too much; few work or pray too much.

Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer.

Fear not them that kill the body and are not able to kill the soul; but rather fear Him that can destroy both body and soul in hell.

No one can love Our Lord who does not know about Him, and no one can be truly loyal to the Church who does not care to know her.

The fact that a man is free from the duties of family life, does not exempt him from duties to others, especially the poor and needy.

Drunkenness and impurity go together.

I say to the unmarried: it is good for them if they so continue even as I. But if they do not contain themselves, let them marry, for it is better to marry than to be burnt.

What shall it profit a man if he shall gain the whole world and suffer the loss of his own soul?

In all thy works remember thy last end and thou shalt never sin.

Not everyone that saith to Me: Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doth the will of My Father Who is in heaven, he shall enter into the kingdom of heaven.

Counsels and Maxims

For Older Men

SPEAK thou the things that become sound doctrine: that the aged men be sober, chaste, prudent, sound in faith, in love, in patience.

Faith is a prop to the mind and a stay of the soul in all adversity.

Mercy and charity to the poor are a means of repaying Christ for what He has done for us throughout life.

If you are entrusted with wealth or authority, remember that you should but act as stewards in behalf of the poor and weak.

Pericles, the great Athenian ruler, when dying said that his greatest glory was that he had never caused one of his fellow-citizens to put on mourning.

We may appeal against the sentence of a judge, but no man can appeal against the sentence of his own conscience.

A peaceful mind is like a continual feast.

Thou hast made known to me the ways of life, Thou shalt fill me with the joys of Thy countenance. At Thy right hand are delights for evermore.

Behold I command thee: Take courage and be strong. Fear not and be not dismayed, because the Lord Thy God is with thee in all things.

Always be willing to learn. Saints like Anthony, Cyprian and Augustine admitted that they profited much by studying the good they saw in others.

A kind and encouraging word has saved many a one from wreck.

The glory of this world passes away; but the happiness of heaven abides forever.

Contentment surpasses riches.

As the crucible reveals true gold, so does affliction manifest the true friend of God.

Be not concerned that you are not known, but seek only to be worthy to be known.

Virtue is the finest ornament of knowledge, and knowledge is the finest ornament of virtue.

The saints regulated their lives according to the perfections of God, and did penance; we judge our conduct according to the standards of the world, and are satisfied. And yet it is the divine holiness by which we shall be judged.

A kind deed is worth more than a volume of empty words.

By this shall all men know that you are My disciples, if you have love one for another.

Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with thy whole heart, and thy neighbor as thyself.

A well-trained soul knows how to suffer and rejoice, without giving itself up too much either to grief or to delight.

The patient man is better than the valiant, and he that ruleth his spirit than he that taketh cities.

If we wish to reform the world, the Church, or our neighbor, let us begin with ourselves.

Old people often become very selfish and arbitrary, thus rendering themselves odious and disagreeable to everyone around them.

We are soon forgotten after death. Let us, therefore, surround ourselves with good works while we may.

The number of man's days at most are a hundred years. As a drop of water of the sea are they esteemed, and as a pebble of the sands, so are a few years compared to eternity.

In all things look to the end, and how thou shalt be able to stand before a severe Judge, to Whom nothing is hidden, Who takes no bribes, nor receives excuses, but will judge that which is just.

We must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that everyone may receive the proper things of the body according as he hath done, whether it be good or evil.

Why dost thou not prepare thyself for the day of judgment when no man shall be excused nor defended by another, but everyone shall have enough to do to answer for himself?

In My Father's house there are many mansions. If not, I would have told you, because I go to prepare a place for you.

Thus saith the Lord: Let thy voice cease from weeping, and thine eyes from tears, for there is a reward for thy work.

The redeemed of the Lord shall come into Sion with praise, and everlasting joy shall be upon their heads. They shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and mourning shall flee away.

A Rule of Life for Catholic Men

Morning Prayers

Morning prayers should comprise adoration of the Divine Majesty, thanksgiving for His protection during the night, and consecration of the day to God's service.

On awakening, make the Sign of the Cross, and rising from your bed, say:

IN the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ crucified, I arise. May He bless my work, govern my every action and preserve me from harm this day.

Kneeling down put yourself in the presence of God, realizing that He is anxious to hear and help you.

AREE my mind, O Lord, from all distracting thoughts, and enable me to pray at all times with attention and devotion, so that I may deserve to be heard by Thee. I offer Thee my prayers in union with that divine intention with which Thou Thyself, while on earth, didst render praises to God.

ACTS OF ADORATION

BLESSED be the holy and undivided Trinity, now and forevermore.

Unto the King of ages, the immortal, invisible, and only God, be honor and glory forever and ever.

I thank Thee, O my Father, for the innumerable favors and benefits which I have received from Thy loving kindness and mercy, especially for having preserved me this night.

Glory be to the Father Who has created me, glory be to the Son Who has redeemed me, glory be to the Holy Ghost Who has sanctified me.

MORNING OFFERING

O JESUS, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer Thee my prayers, works and sufferings of this day for all the intentions of Thy Sacred Heart, in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world, in reparation for my sins, for the intentions of all our Associates and in particular for the intention of the Apostleship of Prayer.

Prayers for Every Day

The Lord's Prayer

OUR Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.

The Angelical Salutation

HAIL, Mary, full of grace! the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou amongst women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

The Apostles' Creed

I BELIEVE in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into hell; the third day He arose again from the dead: He ascended into heaven, sitteth at the right hand of God, the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost, the Holy Catholic Church, the communion of Saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Confiteor

I CONFESS to Almighty God, to blessed Mary, ever Virgin, to blessed Michael the Archangel, to blessed John the Baptist, to the Holy Apostles Peter and Paul, and to all the Saints, that I have sinned exceedingly in thought, word and deed, through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault

Therefore I beseech blessed Mary, ever Virgin, blessed Michael the Archangel, blessed John the Baptist, the holy Apostles Peter and Paul, and all the Saints, to pray to the Lord our God for me.

May the Almighty God have mercy on me, and forgive me my sins, and bring me to everlasting life. Amen.

May the Almighty and merciful Lord grant me pardon, ✠ absolution, and remission of all my sins. Amen.

Act of Faith

O MY God, I firmly believe all the sacred truths which Thy holy Catholic Church believes and teaches, because Thou hast revealed them, Who canst neither deceive nor be deceived.

Act of Hope

O MY God, relying on Thy infinite goodness and promises, I hope to obtain the pardon of my sins, the assistance of Thy grace, and life everlasting; through the merits of Jesus Christ, our Lord and Saviour.

Act of Charity

O MY God! I love Thee above all things with my whole heart and soul, because Thou art all-good, and worthy of all love. I love my neighbor as myself for the love of Thee. I forgive all who have injured me, and ask pardon of all whom I have injured.

(Ind. of 7 years and 7 quarantines for saying the acts of faith, hope and charity each time. — BENE-DICT XIV, Jan. 28, 1756.)

The Angelus

THE angel of the Lord declared unto Mary.

R. And she conceived by the Holy Ghost. Hail, Mary, etc.

V. Behold the handmaid of the Lord.

R. Be it done unto me according to Thy word. Hail, Mary, etc.

V. AND THE WORD WAS MADE FLESH.

Let us Pray

POUR forth, we beseech Thee, O Lord, Thy grace into our hearts; that we to whom the Incarnation of Christ Thy Son was made known by the message of an angel, may by His Passion and Cross, be brought to the Glory of His Resurrection. Through the same Christ our Lord.

(Ind. of 100 days, each time. — LEO XIII,
May 20, 1896.)

The Regina Cæli

BRIGHT Queen of heaven! your joy declare; Alleluia.

Hath, as He said, rose from the grave; Alleluia.

V. Rejoice and be glad, O Virgin Mary. Alleluia.

R. For He hath truly risen. Alleluia.

Let us Pray

O GOD! Who by the Resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, hast vouchsafed to rejoice the world, grant, we beseech Thee, that by the intercession of His Virgin Mother, Mary, we may receive the joys of eternal life, through the same Christ, our Lord.

(Ind. of 100 days, each time. — LEO XIII, May 20, 1896.)

Grace at Meals*Before Meals*

BLESS us, O Lord, and these Thy gifts, which we are about to receive from Thy bounty. Through Christ our Lord.

After Meals

WE give Thee thanks, O almighty God, for all Thy mercies. Who livest and reignest forever and ever.

Evening Prayers

Never neglect night prayers. Offer up fervent supplications that you may be protected from harm while you rest. Each night may be your last.

IN the name of the Father, ✠ and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Act of Thanksgiving

I MOST heartily thank Thee, O Lord, for all Thy mercies and blessings bestowed upon me and upon Thy whole Church; and particularly for those I have received from Thee this day, in watching over me, and preserving me from so many evils, and favoring me with so many graces and inspirations. [Here pause and meditate on God's mercies.] Oh, let me never more be ungrateful unto Thee, my God, Who art so good and gracious.

Examination of Conscience

O MY Lord Jesus Christ, Judge of the living and the dead, before Whom I must appear one day to give an exact account of my whole life; enlighten me, I beseech Thee, and give me an humble and contrite heart, that I may see wherein I have offended Thine infinite Majesty, and judge myself now with such a just severity, that then Thou mayest judge me with mercy and clemency.

Here pause a moment and consider where and in what company you have been this day. Call to mind the sins committed against God, your neighbor, or yourself; and reflect whether you have fulfilled the duties of your state of life.

Offenses against God: Omission or negligence in religious duties; irreverence and wilful distractions in prayer; lack of confidence and resignation; cursing, swearing, etc.

Against the neighbor: Want of obedience or respect; scandal, hatred, quarreling; stealing, injuries; lies, false reports; jealousy, desire of revenge, etc.

Against self: Vanity, human respect; thoughts, desires or language against purity; intemperance in eating or drinking; laziness and neglect of one's duties.

The Confiteor

I CONFESS to Almighty God, to blessed Mary ever Virgin, to blessed Michael the Archangel, to blessed John the Baptist, to the holy Apostles Peter and Paul, and to all the Saints, that I have sinned exceedingly in thought, word and deed, through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault. Therefore I beseech blessed Mary ever Virgin, blessed Michael the Archangel, blessed John the Baptist, the holy Apostles Peter and Paul, and all the Saints, to pray to the Lord our God for me.

May Almighty God have mercy on me, forgive me my sins, and bring me to everlasting life. Amen.

May the Almighty and merciful Lord grant me pardon, ✠ absolution, and remission of all my sins.

Act of Contrition

O MY God! I am heartily sorry for having offended Thee, and I detest all my sins, because I dread the loss of heaven and the pains of hell, but most of all because they offend Thee, my God, who art all-good and deserving of all my love. I firmly resolve, with the help of Thy grace, to confess my sins, to do penance, and to amend my life.

An Evening Hymn

Now that the daylight dies away,

By all Thy grace and love,
Thee, Maker of the world, we pray
To watch our bed above.

Let dreams depart and phantoms fly,

The offspring of the night;
Keep us, like shrines, beneath Thine eye,
Pure in our foes' despite.

This grace on Thy redeemed confer,
Father, co-equal Son,
And Holy Ghost, the Comforter, Eternal Three in One.

Prayer for the Departed, Especially
Our Friends and Benefactors

O GOD! the Creator and Redeemer of all the faithful, grant to the souls of Thy servants departed, the remission of all their sins, that, through pious supplications, they may obtain that pardon, which they have always desired. Who livest and reignest forever and ever.

Act of Petition

VISIT, we beseech Thee, O Lord, this habitation, and drive far from it all snares of the enemy. Let Thy holy angels dwell herein, to preserve us in peace; and may Thy blessing be always upon us, through our Lord, Jesus Christ.

Save us, O Lord, when we are awake, and keep us while we sleep, that we may watch with Christ, and rest in peace.

Devotions for Confession

Prayers before Confession

Each confession should be made as carefully as if it were to be the last one of our lives. First, we should beg God's mercy, and ask Him to give us light to know our sins, and grace to detest them: then diligently examine our conscience.

A Prayer

I HAVE sinned against God and man and I am sorry. Increase my sorrow O Lord and encourage true contrition in my soul and a firm purpose of sinning no more. Enlighten my understanding and assist me in bringing to mind my transgressions that I can make a worthy confession and again be pleasing in Thy sight. In Thy goodness assist me dear Lord, because without Thee I am helpless.

Examination of Conscience

It is necessary to tell in confession all the mortal or grievous sins we have been guilty of since our last worthy confession, adding also any venial sins we can remember.

Preliminary Examination

When did you make your last confession? Did you have real sorrow for the sins then told? Did you conceal or forget any mortal sin? Have you performed your penance, and done as your confessor directed? Have you really tried to keep your good resolutions?

Table of Sins against the Commandments

FIRST COMMANDMENT: Have you doubted in matters of faith? consulted fortune-tellers? believed in dreams? made use of superstitious practices? gone to places of false worship? belonged to forbidden societies? read anti-Catholic books and papers? neglected your religious instruction? omitted religious duties through human respect? Have you murmured against God, or despised of His mercy? Or have you rashly presumed on His goodness in committing sin? Have you neglected your daily prayers? been irreverent toward God, sacred persons, places, or things?

SECOND COMMANDMENT: Have you taken the name of God in vain? spoken disrespectfully of the Saints or holy things? sworn falsely, rashly, or in slight trivial matters? Have you cursed, blasphemed, or caused others to do so?

THIRD COMMANDMENT: Have you kept holy the Sunday and holydays by assisting at Mass with devotion? Have you performed or commanded unnecessary servile work? bought or sold without necessity, or in any other way profaned these days?

FOURTH COMMANDMENT: Have you shown due honor and obedience to your parents, pastors, and other superiors? Have you been respectful to aged persons? Have you had proper care for your children and those dependent upon you, in particular as regards religious training and duties? Have you given them good example?

FIFTH COMMANDMENT: Have you procured, desired, or hastened the death of any one? Have you been guilty of anger, hatred, quarreling, revenge? used provoking language, insulting words, ridicule? refused to speak to others? caused enmities? given scandal?

SIXTH AND NINTH COMMANDMENTS: Have you been guilty of impurity or immodesty in thoughts, words, or actions? Have you put yourself in an occasion of sin by reading bad books, keeping bad company, attending immoral performances, and the like? Have you been an occasion of sin to others by your conversation, dress, actions?

SEVENTH AND TENTH COMMANDMENTS: Have you stolen or retained ill-gotten goods? cheated? refused to pay your just debts? damaged or wasted the property of others? accepted bribes? neglected to make restitution, or to help the poor? Have you coveted what belongs to others?

EIGHTH COMMANDMENT: Have you borne false witness for or against another? been guilty of detraction, flattery, hypocrisy, lying, rash judgment?

Table of Sins against the Precepts of the Church

1. Have you observed the Sundays and holydays by hearing Mass and avoiding servile works?
2. Have you neglected prescribed fasts and abstinences without sufficient reason?
3. Have you confessed your mortal sins at least once a year?
4. Have you gone to Holy Communion during the Easter time?
5. Have you contributed according to your means to religion and the Church?
6. Have you married not in accordance with the laws of the Catholic Church, or aided others in doing so?

Table of Capital Sins

1. Have you been guilty of pride, vainglory, love of applause, contempt of others?
2. Have you been too eager in seeking the goods of this world, or had your heart set on them?
3. Have you violated the Sixth and Ninth Commandments in any way?

4. Have you been guilty of unreasonable anger, or disagreeableness of disposition?
5. Have you eaten or drunk to excess, or caused others to do so?
6. Have you rejoiced at the misfortune, or been grieved at the success of others?
7. Have you wasted time in idleness and self-indulgence? Have you neglected the duties of your state of life, or performed them remissly? Have you desired to commit sin, or gloried in sin committed?

For other classes of sins which may have been committed, or for virtues which have been neglected, see Abridgment of Christian Doctrine, page 31.

An Act of Contrition

O MY God! I am heartily sorry for having offended Thee, and I detest all my sins, because I dread the loss of heaven and the pains of hell, but most of all because they offend Thee, my God, who art all-good and deserving of all my love. I firmly resolve, with the help of Thy grace, to confess my sins, to do penance, and to amend my life.

Then listen attentively to anything the confessor may choose to say; humbly accept the penance he imposes; and, when he raises his hand in absolution, recite the Act of Contrition.

Manner of Making Confession

Having entered the confessional, place yourself in the presence of God, Who sees all things, and then address His minister:

BLESS me, Father, for I have sinned.

I confess to Almighty God, and to you, Father, that I have sinned exceedingly in thought, word, deed and omission, through my fault.

It has been one week, (or, — weeks), since my last worthy confession. I accuse myself of having committed, during that time, the following sins:

Without exaggerating or extenuating the offenses of which you may be conscious, tell them, as if to God Himself, with a humble, sorrowful and contrite heart. Afterwards, it will be well, though it is never obligatory, to specify some one sin of the past which is especially calculated to dispose the soul to deeper contrition. This being briefly done, say:

For these, and for all the sins of which I have at any time been guilty, I humbly ask pardon of God, and absolution of you, Father, if you think me worthy.

Prayers after Confession

After confession we should return thanks to God for His mercies in forgiving our sins, beg that He supply whatever has been wanting to us and bless our good resolutions, and immediately thereafter say our penance.

Prayer for Perseverance

MY Lord and my God! In the greatness of Thy mercy Thou hast received me as Thy prodigal child. I thank Thee with all the power of my soul. I came to Thee a sinful man and Thou hast received me with mercy. I was an outcast but Thou hast welcomed me as a friend. Without Thee, O Lord, I am nothing but misery and sin, but with Thee I have everything. I am weak, strengthen me O Lord, I am tired, refresh my soul that I become strong and robust in my determination to live the life of a manly Catholic and properly and fearlessly perform the duties of my state of life, ever filled with the fear and love of God, my Creator and Redeemer.

Devotions for Holy Communion

Preparation for Holy Communion

We should never approach the holy table unless free from grievous sin, and without some previous devout preparation. The benefit we derive from our Communions is in proportion to our devotion.

Prayer of Supplication

GOD, the Father in heaven, in the name of Jesus Christ Thy Son, I present myself before Thee. I come as one sick to the physician of life, as one unclean to the source of all mercy, as one blind to the light of the eternal sun, as one poor and needy to the Lord of heaven and earth.

I beg of Thee, from the abundance of Thine immense goodness, to heal my infirmity, cleanse me from my sins, illumine my understanding, enrich my poverty, and clothe my nakedness. Allow me to receive the Bread of angels, the King of kings, the Lord of lords, with reverence and humility, contrition and devotion, purity and faith, with uprightness of purpose and intention, for the better salvation of my immortal soul.

Abandonment to God

TAKE my body, Jesus,
 Eyes and ears and tongue;
 Never let them, Jesus,
 Help to do Thee wrong.
 Take my heart and fill it
 Full of love for Thee.
 All I have I give Thee,
 Give Thyself to me.

Intention

JOY with peace, amendment of life, space for true repentance, the grace and comfort of the Holy Ghost, perseverance in good works, a contrite and humble heart, and a happy consummation of my life, grant unto me, O almighty and merciful Lord.

At Communion

Go quietly to the railing with hands devoutly folded, and kneel. As the priest turns to pronounce the words of absolution, renew your Act of Contri-tion. As he approaches to give you the Host, moderately raise your head, open your mouth, resting the end of your tongue on the lower lip. After this, return to your place, having your eyes cast down and hands again reverently folded.

Thanksgiving after Holy Communion

Returning to your seat, reflect on the Sacred Mysteries you have just received, giving free expression to your devotion in your own words. The following prayers will be found useful as aids to your sentiments of worship, thanksgiving, petition, etc.

Talking with God

THOU hast come to me, my Lord and my God. Thou, Whom the angels desire to behold, hast come to strengthen my weaknesses. My Jesus, in this moment of rapture, let my soul be refreshed from Thy fountain of grace. I have earnestly sought Thee, and having found Thee let me enjoy in full the realization of Thy coming. I burden Thee with my requests, but to whom, Lord, can I appeal
 but to Thee, my Lord and my God.
 May I be ever Thine.

Prayer Before a Crucifix

To be said kneeling after Communion

LOOK down upon me, good and gentle Jesus, while before Thy face I humbly kneel, and with burning soul pray and beseech Thee to fix deep in my heart lively sentiments of faith, hope and charity, true contrition for my sins, and a firm purpose of amendment. Meanwhile, I contemplate with great love and tender mercy Thy five most precious wounds, pondering over them within me, and calling to mind the words which David in prophecy made Thee say concerning Thyself, my Jesus: "They have pierced My hands and feet; they have numbered all My bones."

(Plen. Ind. Conditions: Conf., Comm., Prayers for intention of Holy Father. — Pius IX. July 31, 1858.)

Prayer to the Blessed Virgin

O MOST Holy, noble and glorious Virgin Mary, who wast found worthy to bear in thy sacred womb the Creator of all, and at thy virginal breast to nourish Him Whose true, real, and most holy Body and Blood I, an unworthy sinner, have just now been privileged to receive; I humbly beseech thee, to intercede with Him for me a sinner; that whatsoever, by ignorance or neglect, by accident or irreverence, I have left undone, or have done amiss, in receiving this holy Sacrament, may be pardoned through thy prayers to our Lord Jesus Christ, thy Son, Who with the Father and the Holy Ghost livest and reignest forever and ever.

Anima Christi

SOUL of Christ, be my sanctification;
Body of Christ, be my salvation;
Blood of Christ, fill all my veins;
Water from Christ's side, wash out my stains;

Passion of Christ, my comfort be,
O good Jesus, listen to me.

In Thy wounds I fain would hide,
Ne'er to be parted from Thy side.

Guard me when the foe assails me;
Guide me when my feet shall fail me;
Bid me come to Thee above,

With Thy saints to sing Thy love, forever and ever.

The First Part of the Mass, or the Mass of the Catechumens

The term "catechumens" designates those who have been receiving religious instruction, but have not yet been admitted to Baptism. In the early days of the Church these candidates were allowed to be present only for the first part of the Mass, being dismissed just before the Offertory.

2. From the Introit to the Collect

At Solemn Mass the altar is incensed before the Introit and Kyrie. The use of incense is intended to symbolize prayer, according to the words of the Psalmist: "Let my prayer, O Lord, be directed as incense in Thy sight" (Ps. cxl. 2).

The Introit

The Introit and other variable parts of the Mass here given are taken from the Mass of the Feast of the Holy Name of Jesus.

Philippians ii. 10, 11

In the name of Jesus let every knee bow, of those that are in heaven, on earth, and under the earth; and let every tongue confess that the Lord Jesus Christ is in the glory of God the Father.

Psalm viii. 2

O Lord our Lord, how admirable is Thy Name in the whole earth!

V. Glory be to the Father, etc.

The Gloria

Afterwards, at the middle of the altar, the priest says the Gloria in excelsis, the magnificent hymn of adoration. The Gloria is omitted on Sundays during Lent and Advent.

GLORIA in excelsis Deo; et in terra pax hominibus bonæ voluntatis. Laudamus te; benedicimus te; adoramus te; glorificamus te. Gratias agimus

GLORY be to God on high, and on earth peace to men of good will. We praise Thee; we bless Thee; we worship Thee; we glorify Thee. We

give Thee thanks for Thy great glory, O Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father almighty. O Lord, the only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ; O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, Who takest away the sins of the world, have mercy on us: Thou Who takest away the sins of the world, receive our prayer: Thou Who sittest at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For Thou only art holy: Thou only art the Lord: Thou only, O Jesus Christ, with the Holy Ghost, art most high in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

3. The Collect

The priest kisses the altar, and, turning to the people says:

V. Dominus vobiscum.

R. Et cum spiritu tuo.

Oremus.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

The Collect

O GOD, Who hast appointed Thine only-begotten Son to be the Saviour of mankind, and hast commanded that His name should be called Jesus, mercifully grant that we may enjoy in heaven the blessed vision of Him Whose holy Name we worship on earth. Through the same Christ our Lord. AMEN.

4. From the Epistle to the Creed

EPISTLE. Acts iv. 8-12

IN those days: — Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them: Ye rulers of the people and ancients, hear. If we this day are examined concerning the good deed done to the infirm man, by what means he hath been made whole, be it known to you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ of Nazareth, Whom ye crucified, Whom God hath raised from the dead, by Him this man standeth here before you whole. This is the stone which was rejected by you the builders, which is become the head of the corner: neither is there salvation in any other. For there is no other Name under heaven given among men, by which we must be saved.

R. Deo gratias.

R. Thanks be to God.

The Gradual

Psalm cv. 47. Save us, O Lord our God, and gather us from among the nations: that we may give thanks to Thy holy Name, and may glory in Thy praise.

V. Isaias lxiii. 16. Thou, O Lord, art our Father and our Redeemer, from everlasting is Thy Name.

Alleluia, alleluia.

V. Psalm cxliv. 21. My mouth shall speak the praise of the Lord, and let all flesh bless His holy Name, alleluia.

In votive Masses after Septuagesima the Alleluia and its verse is omitted and in its place the following Tract is said:

V. O Lord God of Hosts, convert us, and show Thy face and we shall be saved; let Thy voice sound in mine ears.

V. For sweet is Thy voice, and Thy face exceeding fair.

V. Thy Name, O Jesus, is as oil poured forth, therefore have the maidens loved Thee.

In Paschal time instead of the Gradual the following is said:

Alleluia, Alleluia. My mouth shall speak the praise of the Lord, and let all flesh bless His holy Name. Alleluia.

I will extol Thee, O God my King, and bless Thy Name, O Jesus, forever: yea, forever and ever. Alleluia.

Before the Gospel

ignito: ita me tua grata miseratione dignare mundare, ut

Per Christum

Amen.

Jube Domine benedicere.

Dominus sit in corde meo et in labiis meis, ut digne et competenter annuntiem Evangelium suum.

Amen.

CLEANSE my heart and my lips, O almighty God, Who didst cleanse the lips of the prophet Isaiahs with a burning coal; and vouchsafe, through Thy gracious mercy, so to purify me, that I may worthily proclaim Thy holy Gospel. Through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Lord, grant Thy blessing.

The Lord be in my heart and on my lips, that I may worthily and fittingly proclaim His holy Gospel.

Amen.

At Solemn Mass the deacon before singing the Gospel is blessed by the priest. The singing of the Gospel is accompanied by a procession, lights and incense. In other Masses the celebrant, going to the Gospel side, reads the Gospel.

The Gospel

DOMINUS vobiscum.

R. Et cum spiritu tuo.

V. Sequentia sancti Evangelii secundum Lucam (ii) 21.

R. Gloria tibi, Domine.

THE Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

V. The continuation of the Gospel according to St. Luke (ii) 21.

R. Glory be to Thee, O Lord.

Here is read the Gospel

GOSPEL. Luke ii. 21

AT that time: — After eight days were past, that the Child should be circumcised; His Name was called Jesus, so called by the Angel before He was conceived in the womb.

R. Laus tibi, Christe!

R. Praise be to Thee, O Christ.

The priest kisses the Gospel, saying:

Per evangelica dicta deleantur nostra delicta.

By the words of the Gospel may our sins be blotted out.

In Solemn Mass the celebrant is incensed by the deacon after the Gospel. Here also the sermon is usually preached.

5. The Nicene Creed

This Creed, or profession of faith, was formulated by the Councils of Nicæa and Constantinople in the fourth century. The priest recites it at the middle of the altar. At the INCARNATUS EST both priest and people genuflect in honor of the mystery of the Incarnation of the Son of God.

CREDO in unum Deum, Patrem omnipotentem, Factorem cæli et terræ, visibilium omnium et invisibilium.

Et in unum Dominum Jesum Chris-

I BELIEVE in one God, the Father almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible.

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the tum, Filium Dei unigenitum, et ex Patre natum ante omnia saecula. Deum de Deo; Lumen de Lumine; Deum verum de Deo vero; genitum, non factum; consubstantiali Patre, per quem omnia facta sunt. Qui propter nos homines, et propter nostram salutem, descendit de caelis [Here all kneel.] et incarnatus est de Spiritu Sancto, ex Maria Virgine: ET HOMO FACTUS EST. Crucifixus etiam pro nobis: sub Pontio Pilato passus et sepultus est. Et resurrexit tertia die secundum Scripturas; et ascendit in caelum, sedet ad only-begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God of God; Light of Light; very God of very God; begotten, not made; of one substance with the Father, by Whom all things were made. Who for us men, and for our salvation, came down from heaven, [Here all kneel.] and was incarnate by the Holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary; AND WAS MADE MAN. He was crucified also for us, suffered under Pontius Pilate, and was buried. The third day He rose again according to the Scriptures; and ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the dexteram Patris: et iterum venturus est cum gloria judicare vivos et mortuos: cujus regni non erit finis.

Et in Spiritum Sanctum, Dominum et vivificantem, qui ex Patre Filoque procedit: qui cum Patre et Filio simul adoratur et conglorificatur; qui locutus est per prophetas. Et unam sanctam catholicam et apostolicam Ecclesiam. Confiteor unum baptismum in remissionem peccatorum. Et expecto resurrectionem mortuorum, et vitam venturi saeculi. Amen.

right hand of the Father: and He shall come again with glory to judge both the living and the dead: of Whose kingdom there shall be no end.

And I believe in the Holy Ghost, the Lord and Giver of life, Who proceedeth from the Father and the Son: Who together with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified; Who spoke by the Prophets. And one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the remission of sins. And I look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Second Part of the Mass, of the Mass of the Faithful

This is the essential part of the Mass, containing the Sacrifice and the Eucharistic Banquet. It is called "The Mass of the Faithful" because in the early centuries none but the baptized were allowed to assist at it.

1. The Offertory

The Offertory is the first act of the Sacrifice, in which the priest offers to God the bread and wine which are later to be consecrated into the Body and Blood of Christ.

Turning to the people, the priest salutes them:

V. Dominus vobiscum.

R. Et cum spiritu tuo.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

The Offertory Prayer

Psalm LXXXV. 12, 5

I WILL praise Thee, O Lord my God, with my whole heart, and I will glorify Thy Name forever: for Thou, O Lord, art sweet and mild: and plenteous in mercy to all that call upon Thee, alleluia.

At the offering of the bread

SUSCIPE, sancte Pater, omnipotens, æterne Deus, hanc immaculatam hostiam, quam ego indignus famulus tuus offero tibi Deo meo vivo et vero, pro innumerabilibus peccatis, et offensionibus, et negligentis meis, et pro omnibus circumstantibus; sed et pro omnibus fidelibus christianis, vivis atque defunctis;

ACCEPT, O holy Father, almighty, everlasting God, this stainless Host, which I, Thine unworthy servant, offer unto Thee, my God, living and true, for mine innumerable sins, offenses, and negligences, and for all here present; as also for all faithful Christians, both living and dead, that it may be ut mihi et illis proficiat ad salutem in vitam æternam.

Amen.

profitable for my own and for their salvation unto life eternal. Amen.

At taking wine and water

DEUS, qui humanæ substantiæ dignitatem mirabiliter condidisti, et mirabilius reformasti: da nobis per hujus aquæ et vini mysterium, ejus divinitatis esse consortes, qui humanitatis nostræ fieri dignatus est particeps, Jesus Christus, Filius tuus, Dominus noster; qui tecum vivit et regnat in unitate Spiritus Sancti Deus, per omnia sæcula sæculorum.

Amen.

GOD, Who wonderfully framed man's exalted nature, and still more wonderfully restored it: grant us, by the mystic signification of this commingling of water and wine, to become partakers of His Godhead Who vouchsafed to become partaker of our manhood, Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord; Who liveth and reigneth with Thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, God for ever and ever. Amen.

At the offering of the wine

OFFERIMUS tibi, Domine, calicem salutaris tuam deprecantes clementiam, ut in conspectu divinæ Majestatis tuæ, pro nostra et totius mundi salute cum odore suavitatis ascendat.

Amen.

WE offer unto Thee, O Lord, the chalice of salvation, beseeching Thy clemency that, in the sight of Thy divine Majesty, it may ascend with the odor of sweetness, for our salvation, and for that of the whole world.

Amen.

Invocations

IN spiritu humilitatis, et in animo contrito, suscipiamur a te, Domine, et sic fiat sacrificium nostrum in conspectu tuo hodie, ut placeat tibi, Domine Deus.

IN a humble spirit and a contrite heart may we be received by Thee, O Lord; and let our Sacrifice be so made in Thy sight this day that it may please Thee, O Lord God.

VENI, sanctificator, omnipotens, æterne Deus, et benedic hoc sacrifi-cium, tuo sancto no-mini præparatum.

COME, O Sancti-fier, Almighty, Eternal God, and bless this Sacrifice set forth to Thy holy name.

Blessing of the incense at Solemn Mass

PER interces-sionem beati Michaelis Archangeli, stantis a dextris altaris incensi, et omnium electorum suorum, incensum istud dignetur Dominus benedicere, et in odorem suavitatis accipere. Per Christum Domi-
num nostrum.
Amen.

BY the intercession of blessed Michael the Archangel, standing at the right hand of the Altar of Incense, and of all His elect,
may the Lord vouchsafe to bless this incense, and receive it as an odor of sweetness.
Through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Incensing of the offerings and altar

INCENSUM MAY this incense istud a te bene-dictum ascendat ad te, Domine, et de-scendat super nos
misericordia tua. | MAY this incense which Thou hast blessed, O Lord, ascend to Thee, and may Thy mercy descend upon us.

Then the priest incenses the altar, saying:

DIRIGATUR, Domine, oratio mea sicut incensum in conspectu tuo:
elevatio manuum meorum sacrificium vespertinum.

Pone, Domine,
custodiam ori meo,
et ostium circum-
stantiæ labiis meis.

Ut non declinet cor meum in verba malitiæ, ad excu-sandas excusationes in peccatis.

MET my prayer, O Lord, be directed as incense in Thy sight: and the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice.

Set a watch, O Lord, before my mouth, and a door round about my lips.

That my heart may not incline to evil words, to make excuses in sins.

Giving the censer to the deacon, the priest says:

ACCENDAT in nobis Dominus ignem sui amoris, et flammam æternæ caritatis. Amen.

MAY the Lord enkindle in us the fire of His love, and the flame of everlasting charity. Amen.

Here at Solemn Mass the Celebrant is incensed by the deacon, who next incenses the clergy present in choir and the other ministers at the altar.

At the washing of the fingers

Psalm XXV

LAVABO inter innocentes manus meas: et circumdabo altare tuum, Domine.

Ut audiam vocem laudis: et enarrem universa mirabilia tua.

I WILL wash my hands among the innocent: and I will compass Thine altar, O Lord.

That I may hear the voice of praise, and tell of all Thy wondrous works.

Domine, dilexi, decorem domus tuæ, et locum habitationis gloriæ tuæ.

Ne perdas cum impiis, Deus, animam meam; et cum viris sanguinum vitam meam.

In quorum manibus iniquitates sunt: dextera eorum repleta est numeribus.

Ego autem in innocentia mea ingressus sum: redime me et miserere mei.

Pes meus stetit in directo: in ecclesiis benedicam te, Domine.

O Lord, I have loved the beauty of Thy house, and the place where Thy glory dwelleth.

Take not away my soul, O God, with the wicked, nor my life with men of blood.

In whose hands are iniquities: their right hand is filled with gifts.

But as for me, I have walked in my innocence: redeem me, and be merciful unto me.

My foot hath stood in the right way: in the churches I will bless Thee, O Lord.

Gloria Patri, et Filio, et Spiritui Sancto.

Sicut erat in principio, et nunc, et semper, et in sæcula sæculorum.

Amen.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now,
and ever shall be,
world without end.

Amen.

Oblation

Before the middle of the altar the priest says:

SUSCIPE, sancta
Trinitas, hanc oblationem quam tibi offerimus ob memoriam passionis, resurrecti-onis, et ascensionis Jesu Christi, Domini nostri: et in honorem beatæ Mariæ semper Virginis, et beati Joannis Baptistæ, et

RECEIVE, O
Holy Trinity,
this oblation, which we offer unto Thee, in memory of the passion, resurrection, and ascension of our Lord Jesus Christ, and in honor of blessed Mary ever-Virgin, of blessed John the Baptist, of the holy apostles

sanctorum Aposto-lorum Petri et Pauli, et istorum et omnium Sanctorum:
ut illis proficiat ad
honorem, nobis autem ad salutem: et illi pro nobis inter-cedere dignentur in cælis, quorum memoriam agimus in terris. Per eum-dem Christum Dominum nostrum.

Amen.

Peter and Paul, of these and of all Thy saints: that it may be to their honor and to our salvation: and may they vouchsafe to intercede for us in heaven, whose memory we celebrate on earth.
Through the same
Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Invitation to prayer

The priest kisses the altar, and turning toward the people, says:

ORATE, fratres,
ut meum ac ves-trum sacrificium acceptabile fiat apud Deum Patrem omnipotentem.

PRAY, my brethren, that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God the Father almighty.

The ministers answer:

SUSCIPIAT Dominus sacrificium de manibus tuis, ad laudem et gloriam nominis sui, ad utilitatem quoque nostram, totiusque Ecclesiæ suæ sanctæ.

MAY the Lord receive the Sacrifice from thy hands, to the praise and glory of His Name, to our benefit, and to that of all His holy Church.

The priest replies in a low voice, Amen, and proceeds to say:

The Secret Prayer

MAY Thy blessing, most merciful God by which every creature liveth, sanctify, we beseech Thee, this our sacrifice, which we offer unto Thee to the glory of the Name of Thy Son, our Lord Jesus Christ: that it may please Thy majesty as an act of praise, and profit us unto salvation. Through the same Lord, etc.

2. The Preface

The Preface is an introduction to the Canon, or most solemn part of the Mass. It varies according to seasons. The one that follows is that of the Nativity, which is said on the Feast of the Holy Name.

PER omnia sæcula sæculorum.

that while we ac-

we may be drawn by Him to the Love of things unseen.

Thy glory, saying again and again:

of the beginning of the Canon.*

and earth are full of Thy glory. Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who cometh in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the high-

3. The Canon

This is the most sacred part of the Mass. It consists of many prayers of very great antiquity; some of its words were used by Our Lord Himself at the Last Supper; it is called "Canon," i.e., rule or standard, because it is unchangeable with but few exceptions.

Prayer for the Whole Church

The priest now prays in secret:

DE igitur, clem-tissime Pater, per Jesum Christum Filium tuum Dominum nostrum, supplices rogamus ac petimus, uti accepta habeas et benedicas hæc dona,

WE, therefore, humbly pray
and beseech Thee, most merciful Father, through Jesus Christ Thy Son, our Lord, that Thou wouldst accept and bless these

hæc munera, hæc sancta sacrificia illibata, in primis, quæ tibi offerimus pro Ecclesia tua sancta catholica: quam pacificare, custodire, adunare, et regere digneris toto orbe terrarum, una cum famulo tuo Papa nostra N., et Antistite nostro N., et omnibus orthodoxis, atque catholicæ et apostolicæ fidei cultoribus.

gifts, these presents, these holy unspotted sacrifices, which, in the first place, we offer Thee for Thy holy Catholic Church: which vouchsafe to pacify, guard, unite, and govern throughout the whole world together with Thy servant N. our Pope; N. our Bishop; as also all orthodox believers and professors of the Catholic and Apostolic faith.

The Commemoration of the Living

MEMENTO, Domine, famularum famularumque tuarum, N. et N.,

REMEMBER, O Lord, Thy servants and handmaids, N. and N.,

The priest pauses, and, joining his hands, prays silently for those he wishes to pray for in particular; and proceeds:

Et omnium circumstantium, quorum tibi fides cognita est, et nota devotio: pro quibus tibi offerimus, vel qui tibi offerunt hoc sacrificium laudis, pro se, suisque omnibus, pro redemptione animarum suarum, pro spe salutis et incolumitatis suæ: tibi que reddunt vota sua, æterno Deo, vivo et vero.

And all here present whose faith and devotion are known to Thee; for whom we offer, or who offer up to Thee this Sacrifice of praise for themselves and all pertaining to them, for the redemption of their souls, for the hope of their salvation and well-being, and who pay their vows unto Thee, the eternal, living and true God.

Prayer in honor of the Saints

COMMUNICANTES, et memoriam venerantes, in primis gloriosæ semper Virginis Mariæ, Genitricis Dei et Domini nostri Jesu Christi: sed et beatorum Apostolorum ac Martyrum tuorum, Petri et Pauli, Andreae, Jacobi, Joannis, Thomæ, Jacobi, Philippi, Bartholomæi, Matthæi, Simonis et Thaddæi; Lini, Cleti, Clementis, Xysti, Cornelii, Cypriani, Laurentii Chrysogoni, Joannis et Pauli, Cosmæ et Damiani: et omnium Sanctorum tuorum; quorum meritis precibusque

IN communion with, and honoring the memory, especially of the glorious ever Virgin Mary, Mother of our God and Lord Jesus Christ; as also of Thy blessed apostles and martyrs, Peter and Paul, Andrew, James, John, Thomas, James, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Simon and Thaddeus; of Linus, Cletus, Clement, Sixtus, Cornelius, Cyprian, Lawrence, Chrysogonus, John and Paul, Cosmas and Damian: and of all Thy saints; by whose merits and prayers grant that concedas, ut in omnibus protectionis tuæ muniamur auxilio. Per eundem Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

we may in all things be defended by the aid of Thy protection. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

Another Prayer of Oblation

Here the bell is rung once to warn the faithful of the approaching consecration of the bread and wine.

HANC igitur oblationem servitutis nostræ, sed et cunctæ familiæ tuæ quæsumus, Domine, ut placatus accipias; diesque nostros in tua pace disponas, atque ab æterna damnatione nos eripi, et in electorum tuorum jubeas grege numerari. Per Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

THIS oblation, therefore, of our service, and that of Thy whole family, we beseech Thee, O Lord, graciously to accept; and to dispose our days in Thy peace, and to command us to be delivered from eternal damnation, and to be numbered in the flock of Thine elect. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Consecration and Elevation

The words of consecration which the priest uses are the same as those employed by Christ at the Last Supper, and effect the transubstantiation of the bread and wine into the Body and Blood of our Saviour.

QUAM oblationem, tu Deus, in omnibus, quæsumus, benedictam, adscriptam, ratam, rationabilem, acceptabilemque facere digneris: ut nobis corpus et sanguis fiat dilectissimi Filii tui Domini nostri Jesu Christi.

WHICH oblation do Thou, O God, we beseech Thee, vouchsafe to make in all things blessed, approved, ratified, reasonable, and acceptable: that it may become for us the Body and Blood of Thy dearly beloved Son, our Lord Jesus Christ.

QUI pridie quam pateretur, accepit panem in sanctas ac venerabiles manus suas, et elevatis oculis in cælum, ad te Deum Patrem suum omnipotentem: tibi gratias agens, benedixit, fregit, deditque discipulis suis, dicens: Accipite, et manducate ex hoc omnes.

WHO, the day before He suffered, took bread into His holy and venerable hands, and with eyes lifted up toward heaven, unto Thee, O God, His almighty Father, giving thanks to Thee, did bless, break, and give unto His disciples, saying: All of you take and eat of this.

While holding the Host with both hands, the priest pronounces over it the words of consecration:

HOC EST ENIM
CORPUS MEUM.

FOR THIS IS MY BODY.

After genuflecting, the priest elevates the Sacred Host for the adoration of the faithful, and the bell is rung thrice.

SIMILI modo postquam cœ-natum est, accipiens et hunc præclarum calicem in sanctas ac venerabiles manus suas: item tibi gratias agens, bene-dixit, deditque discipulis suis, dicens:
Accipite, et bibite
ex eo omnes.

The priest then pronounces the following words of consecration over the Chalice:

HIC EST ENIM
CALIX SANGUINIS
MEI NOVI ET ÆTER-
NI TESTAMENTI:
MYSTERIUM FIDEI;
QUI PRO VOBIS ET
PRO MULTIS EFFUN-DETUR IN REMISSI-ONEM PECCATORUM.

IN like manner,
after supper,
taking also this excellent chalice into His holy and venerable hands: and giving thanks to Thee,
He blessed, and gave to His disciples, saying:
All of you take and drink of this.

FOR THIS IS THE CHALICE OF MY BLOOD OF THE NEW AND ETERNAL TES-TAMENT: THE MYST-ERY OF FAITH; WHICH SHALL BE SHED FOR YOU, AND FOR MANY, FOR THE REMISSION OF SINS.

He then replaces the Chalice on the corporal, and says:

Hæc quotiescumque feceritis, in mei memoriam facietis.

As often as ye do these things, ye shall do them in remembrance of Me.

Making a genuflection, he adores; then, rising, he elevates the Chalice, and, replacing it upon the corporal, makes another genuflection. At the elevation of the Chalice the bell is rung thrice.

sedeck offered unto Thee, a holy sacrifice, an unspotted
victim.

Bowing over the altar the priest prays:

SUPPLICES te

potens Deus, jube

manus sancti angeli tui in sublime altare tuum, in conspectu divinæ majestatis tuæ, ut quotquot ex

benedictione cælesti et gratia repleamur. Per eundem

num nostrum.

WE humbly beseech Thee, almighty God, command these to be carried by the hands of Thy holy angel to Thine altar on high, in the presence of Thy divine majesty, that as many of us as shall, by partaking at this altar, receive the most sacred Body and Blood of Thy Son, may be filled with all heavenly blessing and grace.
Through the same
Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Amen.

Commemoration of the Dead

MEMENTO etiam, Domine, famulorum famularumque tuarum N. et N., qui nos præcesserunt cum signo fidei, et dormiunt in somno pacis.

The priest then prays for the dead:

IPSIS, Domine, et omnibus in Christo quiescentibus, locum refrigerii, lucis et pacis, ut indulgeas, deprecamur. Per eundem Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

REMEMBER, O Lord, Thy servants and handmaids, N. and N., who have gone before us with the sign of faith, and sleep the sleep of peace.

O these, O Lord, and to all who rest in Christ, grant, we pray Thee, a place of refreshment, of light, and of peace. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayer for those Assisting at the Holy Sacrifice

QUOBIS quoque peccatoribus famulis tuis, de multitudinemiserationum tuarum sperantibus partem aliquam et societatemdonare digneris, cum tuis sanctis Apostolis et Martyribus; cum Joanne, Stephano, Matthia, Barnaba, Ignatio, Alexandro, Marcelino, Petro, Felicitate, Perpetua, Agatha, Lucia, Agnete, Cæcilia, Anastasia, et omnibus Sanctis tuis: intra quorum non aestimator meriti,

O us also, Thy sinful servants, who hope in the multitude of Thy mercies, vouchsafe to grant some part and fellowship with Thy holy Apostles and Martyrs: with John, Stephen, Matthias, Barnabas, Ignatius, Alexander, Marcellinus, Peter, Felicity, Perpetua, Agatha, Lucy, Agnes, Cecilia, Anastasia, and all Thy Saints: into whose company, not weighing our merits, but pardoning our offenses, we beseech Thee to admit us.

Through Christ our Lord.

PER quem hæc omnia, Domine, semper bona creas, sanctificas, vivificas, benedicis, et præstas nobis.

BY whom, O Lord, Thou dost always create, sanctify, quicken, bless, and bestow upon us all these good things.

Concluding Doxology, or Prayer of Praise, of the Canon

PER ipsum, et cum ipso, et in ipso, est tibi Deo Patri omnipotenti, in unitate Spiritus Sancti, omnis honor et gloria.

THROUGH Him, and with Him, and in Him, is unto Thee, God the Father Almighty, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, all honor and glory.

4. The Pater Noster and the Breaking of the Host

The Our Father is the most perfect of all prayers and was taught by Our Lord Himself to His disciples. For this reason it has been added to the Canon, and has been placed here as a fitting preparation for Communion. It is preceded by a brief introduction, and followed by a short conclusion.

The breaking of the Host symbolizes the Passion of Christ. In the days of the apostles the Eucharistic celebration was called "The Breaking of Bread," in memory of the action of Our Lord at the Last Supper.

The priest says inaudibly:

Amen.

At Solemn Mass, the deacon here goes to the right of the priest and receives the paten from the subdeacon and in turn delivers it to the priest.

5. The Communion

The priest now prays for peace and forgiveness of sins as a proximate preparation for receiving the sacred Body and Blood of Christ. Immediately after Communion he recites various prayers of thanksgiving and petition.

V. Pax Domini sit semper vobiscum.

R. Et cum spi-
ritu tuo.

V. May the peace of the Lord be always with you.

R. And with thy

The priest drops a particle of the sacred Host in the Chalice, saying:

Amen.

MAY this mingling and consecration of the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ be

it effectual unto life

Bowing, and striking his breast, the priest says:

AGNUS Dei, qui

Agnus Dei, qui

Agnus Dei, qui

Leaning toward the altar, he says the following prayers:

taking of Thy Body, O Lord Jesus Christ, which I, though unworthy, presume to receive,

ment and condemnation; but by Thy mercy be it profitable to the safety and health both of soul and body. Who with God the Father, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, livest and reignest God world without end.

Amen.

The priest takes the sacred Host in his hands:

PANEM cælestem accipiam, et nomen Domini invo-cabo.

I WILL take the Bread of heaven, and will call upon the Name of the Lord.

Here the bell is rung thrice to call attention to the approaching Communion, while the priest striking his breast repeats the following three times:

DOMINE, non sum dignus ut intres sub tectum meum; sed tantum dic verbo, et sanabitur anima mea.

LORD, I am not worthy that Thou shouldst enter under my roof; but only say the word, and my soul shall be healed.

At the Priest's Communion

The priest receives the sacred Host, saying:

CORPUS Domini
nostri Jesu Christi custodiat
animam meam in vitam æternam.

Amen.

Quid retribuam Domino pro omnibus quæ retribuit mihi? Calicem salutaris accipiam, et nomen Domini in-vocabo. Laudans invocabo Domi-
num, et ab inimicis

MAY the Body of our Lord Jesus Christ preserve my soul to life everlasting.

Amen.

What return shall I make the Lord for all He has given to me? I will take the chalice of salvation and call upon the Name of the Lord, and shall be saved
from my enemies.

The priest receives the Precious Blood:

SANGUIS Domini nostri Jesu Christi custodiat
animam meam in vitam æternam.

Amen.

MAY the Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ preserve my soul to life everlasting.

Amen.

At the Communion of the Faithful:

The server or, at Solemn Mass, the Ministers now say the Confiteor on behalf of the faithful who are to receive Holy Communion.

After taking from the tabernacle of the altar the ciborium, or vessel containing the Blessed Sacrament; and placing it upon the corporal, the priest makes a genuflection, and, turning to the communicants, pronounces the Absolution.

MISEREATUR vestri omnipotens Deus, et dimissis peccatis vestris, perducatur vos ad vitam æternam.

R. Amen.

INDULTIAM, ✠ absolutionem, et remissionem peccatorum vestrorum tribuat vobis omnipotens et misericors Dominus.

R. Amen.

MAY Almighty God have mercy upon you, and forgive you your sins, and bring you unto life everlasting.

R. Amen.

MAY the Almighty and Merciful Lord grant you pardon, ✠ absolution, and remission of your sins.

R. Amen.

The priest elevates a particle of the Blessed Sacrament, and turning toward the people, says:

ECCE Agnus Dei, ecce qui tollit peccata mundi.

BEHOLD the Lamb of God, behold Him Who taketh away the sins of the world.

Then he says three times:

DOMINE, non sum dignus ut intres sub tectum meum; sed tantum dic verbo, et sanabitur anima mea.

WORD, I am not worthy that Thou shouldst enter under my roof; but only say the word, and my soul shall be healed.

Descending the steps of the altar, the priest administers the Holy Communion, saying:

CORPUS Domini nostri Jesu Christi custodiat animam tuam in vitam æternam. Amen.

THE Body of our Lord Jesus Christ preserve thy soul unto life everlasting. Amen.

The priest, returning to the altar, replaces the ciborium in the tabernacle. Then the server pours a little wine into the chalice, and the priest takes the first ablution, saying:

QUOD ore sumpsimus, Domine, pura mente capiamus; et de munere temporalis fiat nobis remedium sem-piternum.

Here the server pours wine and water over the priest's fingers, and the priest, returning to the middle of the altar, wipes his fingers and takes the second ablution, saying:

CORPUS tuum, Domine, quod
sumpsi, et Sanguis quem potavi, ad-hæreat visceribus meis: et præsta, ut in me non remaneat scelerum macula,

WHAT we have taken with our mouth, O Lord, may we receive with a pure heart; and of a temporal gift may it become to us an everlasting healing.

MAY Thy Body,
O Lord, which I have received, and Thy Blood which I have drunk, cleave unto my inmost parts; and grant that no stain of sin

quem pura et sancta refecerunt sacramenta. Qui vivis et regnas in sæcula
sæculorum.

may remain in me who have been refreshed with pure and holy mysteries.
Who livest and reignest forever and ever.

Amen.

Amen.

Going to the book, the priest reads the Communion Antiphon.

Psalm lxxxv. 9, 10. All the nations Thou hast made shall come and adore before Thee, O Lord; and they shall glorify Thy Name, for Thou art great and dost wonderful things. Thou art God alone. Alleluia.

From the center of the altar the priest, turning to the people, says:

V. Dominus vo-biscum.

R. Et cum spi-
ritu tuo.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

Returning to the missal, the priest reads the Post-communion Prayers.

O ALMIGHTY and eternal God, Who hast created and redeemed us, graciously regard our prayers, and vouchsafe to accept with a benign and favorable countenance the sacrifice of the saving victim which we have offered to Thy Majesty, in honor of the Name of Thy Son, our Lord Jesus Christ: that, through the infusion of Thy grace into us, we may rejoice to see our names written in heaven under the glorious Name of Jesus, as a pledge of eternal predestination. Through the same Christ our Lord, etc.

6. Conclusion of the Mass

The Communion being over, the priest announces the conclusion of the Mass, and utters a last prayer that the action he has performed may be acceptable in God's sight and profitable to those for whom it has been offered.

The Dismissal

V. Dominus vobiscum.

R. Et cum spiritu tuo.

V. Ite, missa est.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

V. Go, the Mass is ended.

Or, when the Gloria in Excelsis has been omitted, he turns to the altar and says:

V. Benedicamus Domino.

R. Deo gratias.

V. Let us bless the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

Prayer to the Most Holy Trinity

PLACEAT tibi, sancta Trinitas, obsequium servitutis meæ; et præsta, ut sacrificium quod oculis tuæ majestatis indignus obtuli, tibi sit acceptabile, mihi que, et omnibus pro quibus illud obtuli, sit, te miserante, propitiabile. Per Christum Dominum nostrum.

Amen.

MAY the performance of my homage be pleasing to Thee, O Holy Trinity; and grant that the sacrifice which I, though unworthy, have offered up in the sight of Thy majesty, may be acceptable unto Thee and may, through Thy mercy, be a propitiation for myself, and all those for whom I have offered it. Through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

The priest turns toward the people at the word Deus, making the sign of the cross over them.

BENEDICAT vos
omnipotens Deus, Pater, et Filius, et Spiritus Sanctus.

R. Amen.

Going to the left corner, the priest reads the Last Gospel.

V. Dominus vobiscum.

R. Et cum spiritu tuo.

✠ Initium sancti
Evangelii secundum Joannem.

R. Gloria tibi, Domine.

MAY almighty
God bless you;
the Father, the Son,

Prayers ordered by Pope Leo XIII

To be said kneeling after the celebration of Low Mass.

The priest with the people recites the Hail Mary thrice: then the following prayers:

Salve Regina

HAIL! holy Queen, Mother of mercy, our life, our sweetness, and our hope! To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve; to thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this valley of tears. Turn, then, most gracious advocate, thine eyes of mercy toward us, and after this our exile show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus. O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary!

V. Pray for us, O holy Mother of God.

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us Pray

O GOD, our refuge and our strength, look down with favor upon Thy people, who cry to Thee; and through the intercession of the glorious and immaculate Virgin Mary, Mother of God, of her Spouse, Blessed Joseph, of Thy holy apostles, Peter and Paul, and of all the saints, mercifully and graciously hear the prayers, which we pour forth to Thee, for the conversion of sinners and the liberty and exaltation of Holy Mother Church, through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

ST. MICHAEL the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our protection against the malice and snares of the devil. We humbly beseech Thee, O God, to command him; and do Thou, O prince of the heavenly host, by the divine power thrust into hell Satan and the other evil spirits who roam through the world seeking the destruction of souls. Amen.

(Ind. of 300 days. — LEO XIII. Sept. 25, 1888.)

(Ind. of 7 years, 7 quarantines. — PRUS X. June 7, 1904.)

Then is said three times the ejaculation:

Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, have mercy on us.

Prayers for Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament on page 163.

Prayers at Mass

JESUS will now offer His Great Sacrifice, He wants me to join with Him in His offering. If my prayers are with His, they will please God more and be much stronger than if I prayed by myself.

Prayer before Mass

MY Jesus, I offer my prayers with Yours. Then God will like them more and give me all the things He sees necessary for me to have. I will offer this Mass:

- (1) for God's honor and glory, that everyone may know Him and love Him;
- (2) to thank Him for all He has done for us;
- (3) to ask forgiveness for all my sins;
- (4) to receive the graces and blessings I need for myself and others.

(Say what you want our Lord to give you through this Mass.)

THE BEGINNING OF MASS

Make the sign of the Cross with the priest and say:

IN the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

I confess to Almighty God, etc.

When the priest goes up to the altar say:

Dear Jesus who hast said "Come to Me, all ye who are burdened and oppressed, and I will refresh you," help me to know Thee better and to love Thee more.

The Introit

The priest goes to the right or Epistle side of the altar.

MY God, I am glad that by this Mass Thou wilt be praised and loved as much as Thou dost deserve, because Jesus will love and praise Thee, and He is God. I want to do what He does, and to give Thee glory with Him.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end.

The Kyrie Eleison

Priest: Lord have mercy on us.

Server: Lord have mercy on us.

Priest: Lord have mercy on us.

Server: Christ have mercy on us.

Priest: Christ have mercy on us.

Server: Christ have mercy on us.

Priest: Lord have mercy on us.

Server: Lord have mercy on us.

Priest: Lord have mercy on us.

The Gloria in Excelsis

GLORY be to God on high, and on earth peace to men of good will. We praise Thee; we bless Thee; we adore Thee; we glorify Thee. We give Thee thanks for Thy great glory, O Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father Almighty. O Lord Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son, O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, who takest away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; Thou who takest away the sins of the world, receive our prayers; Thou who sittest at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For Thou alone art holy: Thou only art the Lord: Thou alone, O Jesus Christ, with the Holy Ghost, art most high in the glory of God the Father.

The priest kisses the altar, and turning to the people says:

Dominus vobiscum. (The Lord be with you.)

The server answers for us:

Et cum spiritu tuo. (And with Thy spirit.)

The Collect

The priest collects the prayers of the people and offers them to God.

MY God, we are giving Thee the best of all gifts, Thy own beloved Son. Give us for His sake all we need. Keep us from sin. Save us from all dangers of soul and body. Let holy Mary and all the Angels and Saints pray for us that we may safely reach Heaven. Through Christ our Lord.

The Epistle

MY Jesus, I thank Thee for all Thou hast done to make me happy. For having come into this world to save me. For being a man like me. For being scourged at the pillar, and crowned with thorns, and nailed to the wood of the Cross. For having died for me on the Cross, risen again and ascended to Heaven to prepare there a place for me.

I thank Thee for having made me a Catholic. For having hidden Thyself in the Blessed Sacrament to come to me and be the Food of my soul. Dear Lord, what can I do for Thee in exchange? I will try to do always what I know Thou dost expect of me.

The server says:

Deo gratias. (Thanks be to God.)

The Missal or book is carried to the left or Gospel side of the altar. All stand to hear the words of Jesus Christ Himself. We make the sign of the Cross on our forehead, to show that we believe what Jesus Christ has taught us, on our lips to show we will never speak against it, on our heart to show we love it and will do what He tells us.

The Gospel

O Lord Jesus, Who hast delivered unto us the message of the Gospel, grant that I receive it into my mind, embrace it with my will, preserve it in my memory and practice it in my daily life; and being now privileged to hear Thy voice, may be also at Thy right hand on the last day, and hear Thee say, "Come, ye blessed of My Father, possess you the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world."

At the end of the Gospel the server says:

Laus tibi Christe. (Praise be to Thee, O Christ.)

The Nicene Creed

This is not said every day.

I BELIEVE in one God, and that in this one God there are Three Persons, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost. I believe that to save us from sin and hell and to teach us the way to Heaven, God the Son was made Man (kneel out of reverence for our Lord's Incarnation) and died upon the Cross. The third day He rose again, and ascended into Heaven, and sits at the right hand of the Father, and He shall come again in glory to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost, the Holy Catholic Church, and all that the Church teaches.

The Offertory or Offering

The First Principal Part of the Mass

On the altar stands the chalice or cup, with a little golden plate on it, called a paten. These are covered with a silk veil. The Priest takes off the veil, and holds up with both hands the paten on which lies a host — the bread which is to be changed into the Body of Our Lord. Then he pours wine and water into the chalice and offers it also to God.

MY God, I believe that the host the Priest is offering to Thee will soon be changed into the Body of Thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ. I believe that the wine in the chalice will soon be changed into His Precious Blood. I offer these to Thee with the Priest and with them I offer my body and soul and everything I have.

The Lavabo

This means washing. The priest washes his hands to show how pure we ought to be when we come near our Blessed Lord.

MY God, keep me from sin. When I do wrong, help me to make a good act of contrition and to say: "My God, I am sorry for having displeased Thee because Thou art so good." Then the sin will be removed. If I do this, my soul will always be pure and pleasing to Thee.

"Orate Fratres"

This means: "Brethren, pray." The priest turns to the people and asks them to pray with him.

Brethren, pray that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God the Father Almighty.

The server answers for us:

May the Lord receive the sacrifice from thy hand, to the praise and glory of His Name, to our benefit and that of all His holy Church.

The Secret Prayers

MY God, I pray to Thee, for all the people who will die this day. Have mercy on them and keep them from hell. Heart of Jesus, once in agony, have mercy on the dying.

The Preface

The most solemn part of the Mass is here. When the bell rings, we say the same words the Angels sing in Heaven:

“Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of hosts. Heaven and earth are full of Thy glory. Blessed is He who cometh in the Name of the Lord.”

Blessed be God. Blessed be His holy Name. Blessed be Jesus Christ, true God and true Man. Blessed be Jesus in the most holy Sacrament of the altar.

THE CANON OF THE MASS

All is still around the altar. Many Angels have come down from Heaven, and are waiting to adore their God when He arrives. The Priest prays in a low voice. We must be attentive and pray with him.

Prayer for the Living

MY God, bless our Holy Father the Pope and all our Bishops and Priests. Bless my family, brothers, sisters, and relations, and all for whom I should pray. Have mercy on our country, on all poor sinners, on the sick and the sorrowful. My Jesus, mercy. My Jesus, mercy.

The Consecration and Elevation

The Second Principal Part of the Mass

The bell rings once to tell us the solemn moment has come. The Priest takes the bread in his hands. He says the words of Consecration, the very words of our Lord at the Last Supper: "THIS IS MY BODY," and at once the bread is changed into the Body of Jesus Christ. The Priest falls on his knees to adore our Lord really present, and then lifts up the Sacred Host for the people to see and adore It. Look up for a moment on that Sacred Host and say with faith and with love:

"My Lord and my God!"

"O Sacrament most holy,
O Sacrament divine,
All praise and all thanksgiving
Be every moment Thine!"

"Sweet Sacrament, we Thee adore, O make us love Thee more and more."

The bell is rung three times. The Priest is saying over the wine our Lord's words: "THIS IS MY BLOOD." There is no wine in the chalice now; the Blood of our Lord is there instead. The bell rings again three times. The chalice is lifted up. Raise your eyes to it. Then bow down to adore the Precious Blood that is there.

"O blessed be my Saviour's Blood,
My life, my light, my only good,
To all eternity."

Jesus is now on the altar. He is there for us, to hear us tell Him what we want and to help us. He has said: "Ask, and you shall receive." In your own words, beg of Him the things needed both for yourself and for others.

Prayer for the Dead

HAVE pity, my God, on the poor Souls in Purgatory who have to remain in agony because of the sins they committed in this world. They cannot help themselves, but I can help them by my prayers. Eternal rest give to them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. I offer Thee the Precious Blood of Jesus. I offer Thee the Sacred Heart of Jesus to pay their debt. Have pity on them and receive them soon in Heaven.

(Repeat the names of those for whom you wish to pray.)

The Pater Noster, "Our Father"

Say slowly and reverently our Lord's own Prayer:

OUR Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation. But deliver us from evil.

The Agnus Dei, "Lamb of God"

THOU art called a lamb, dear Jesus, because of Thy gentleness. But my sins have hurt Thee, O Gentle Lamb of God! Forgive me. I am sorry. I will try never more to offend Thee.

The Priest's Communion

The Third Principal Part of the Mass

The bell rings. We say three times:

LORD, I am not worthy that Thou shouldst enter under my roof; say but the word and my soul shall be healed."

Those who are to receive Communion go to the rails, and the server says: I confess, etc.

The Priest bows down and consumes the Sacred Host. Then he receives the Precious Blood from the chalice. Mass is not heard until this has been done.

When the Priest's Communion is finished, he turns to the communicants and says:

May the Almighty God have mercy upon you, and forgiving you your sins bring you to life everlasting.

Server: Amen.

May the Almighty and merciful Lord grant us pardon,  absolution, and forgiveness of our sins.

Server: Amen.

Holding the Blessed Sacrament before the people he says:

Behold the Lamb of God, behold Him who taketh away the sins of the world.

"Lord, I am not worthy that Thou shouldst enter under my roof, say but the word and my soul shall be healed."

This prayer is said three times. Strike your breast each time.

The priest goes down the altar steps and gives Holy Communion to those kneeling at the rails, saying to each:

May the Body of our Lord Jesus Christ preserve thy soul to life everlasting.

If you are not going to Holy Communion make a Spiritual Communion at this time. A Spiritual Communion is a wish to receive our Lord.

I believe, dear Jesus, that Thou art really present in the most holy Sacrament. I adore Thee. I love Thee. I desire to receive Thee. Come into my heart and never leave me. Come, Lord Jesus, come!

THE CONCLUSION OF THE MASS

The Communion and Post- Communion

Whilst the priest is saying these prayers, say:

HELP me, dear Jesus, to love Thee with all my heart, with all my soul, with all my mind, with all my strength. O my God, keep me all my life from mortal sin.

The Blessing

THE Holy Sacrifice is done, Bless me, O Father, with the Son
And Holy Spirit, Three in One,
While never-ending ages run.

The Last Gospel

A GOOD father had two sons.
One day the younger son said to his father: "Father, give me now the share of your things I shall have when you are dead."
The father said nothing, and gave him his share. And not many days after, the younger son gathering all together, went into a far country, and there wasted all he had in riotous living.

And after he had spent all, there came a great famine in that country, and he was in want. And he went to one of the citizens to ask for work. And he sent him into his farm to feed the pigs. The boy was so hungry that he would gladly have eaten the husks that were given to the pigs, for no one had pity on him.

Then in his trouble he began to think of his home. "How many servants in my Father's house," he said, "have more bread than they want, and I here am dying with hunger. I will arise and go to my father and say to him: 'Father, I have sinned against God and against thee, I am not now worthy to be called thy son, make me like one of thy hired servants.'"

And rising up, he came to his father. And when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him and was filled with pity, and running to him, fell upon his neck and kissed him. And the son said to him: "Father, I have sinned against God and against thee, I am not now worthy to be called thy son." And the father said to the servants: "Bring forth quickly the first robe and put it on him, and put a ring on his finger and shoes on his feet, and bring hither the fatted calf and kill it, and let us rejoice and make merry, because this my son was dead and is come to life again, he was lost and is found."

Thanks be to God, our kind Father, who will always receive us when we ask of Him forgiveness.

Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament

The purpose of Benediction is to express faith in the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist, to adore His majesty, to obtain His blessing, to make reparation for outrages and insults offered to God, and to return Him thanks for His many benefits.

Hymns to the Blessed Sacrament

After the Blessed Sacrament has been placed on the altar the two following hymns of veneration are sung:

O Salutaris Hostia

O SALUTARIS
Hostia,
Quæ cæli pandis ostium:

O Saving Victim!

Still kneeling, the priest sings:

V. Panem de cælo præstitisti eis.	V. Thou gavest them Bread from heaven.
R. Omne delec- tamentum in se habentem.	R. Having in it all manner of sweet- ness.

During Easter-tide, and during the octave of Corpus Christi, Alleluia is added to V. and R.

Oremus

DEUS, qui nobis, sub sacramento mirabili, passionis tuæ memoriam reliquisti: tribue, quæsumus, ita nos corporis et sanguinis tui sacra mysteria venerari, ut redemptionis tuæ fructum in nobis jugiter sentiamus. Qui vivis et regnas in sæcula sæculorum.

R. Amen.

Let us Pray

O GOD, Who in this wonderful Sacrament hast left us a memorial of Thy Passion, grant us, we beseech Thee, so to reverence the sacred mysteries of Thy Body and Blood that we may ever find in our souls the fruit of Thy Redemption. Who livest and reignest forever and ever.

R. Amen.

Reverently looking upon the Sacred Host, say:

Devotions to the Most Blessed Sacrament

Act of Spiritual Communion

By St. Alphonsus Liguori

MY Jesus, I believe that Thou art truly present in the Most Blessed Sacrament. I love Thee above all things and I desire to possess Thee within my soul. Since I am unable now to receive Thee sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace Thee as being already there, and unite myself wholly to Thee; never, never permit me to be separated from Thee. Jesus, my sweet love, wound, inflame this heart of mine, so that it may be always and all on fire for Thee.

(Ind. of 60 days, once a day. — LEO XIII.
June 30, 1893.)

Visits to the Blessed Sacrament
When entering the church genuflect before the tabernacle, and say:

DOWN in adoration falling,
Lo! the sacred Host we hail!

(Ind. of 100 days, each time. — BENEDICT XV.
Mar. 22, 1917.)

Prayer of St. Alphonsus Liguori before the Blessed Sacrament

O LORD Jesus Christ, Who, through the love which Thou bearest to men, dost remain with them day and night in this Sacrament, full of mercy and of love, expecting, inviting, and receiving all who come to visit Thee; I believe that Thou art present in the Sacrament of the altar. From the abyss of my nothingness I adore Thee; and I thank Thee for all the favors which Thou hast bestowed upon me, particularly for having given me Thyself in this Sacrament, for having given me for my advocate Thy most holy Mother Mary, and for having called me to visit Thee in this church.

I, this day, salute Thy most loving Heart, and I wish to salute it for three ends: first, in thanksgiving for this great gift; secondly, in reparation for all the injuries Thou hast received from thine enemies in this Sacrament; thirdly, I wish, by this visit, to adore Thee in all places in which Thou art least honored and most abandoned in the Holy Sacrament. My Jesus, I love Thee with my whole heart. I am sorry for having hitherto offended Thy infinite goodness. I purpose, with the assistance of Thy grace, nevermore to offend Thee; and, at this moment, miserable as I am, I consecrate my whole being to Thee. I give Thee my entire will, all my affections and desires, and all I have. From this day forward do what Thou wilt with me, and with whatever belongs to me. I ask and desire only Thy holy love, the gift of final perseverance, and the perfect accomplishment of Thy will. I recommend to Thee the souls in Purgatory, particularly those who were most devoted to the Blessed Sacrament and to most Holy Mary; and I also recommend to Thee all poor sinners. Finally, my dear Saviour, I unite all my affections with the affections of Thy most loving Heart; and, thus united, I offer them to Thy Eternal Father; and I entreat Him, in Thy Name, and for Thy sake, to accept them.

Ejaculations

JESUS, my God, here present in the Sacrament of Thy love, I adore Thee.

WE adore Thee, Thou true Bread of angels.

PRAISED and adored forever be the most holy Sacrament.

O JESUS, in the most holy Sacrament, have mercy on us.

THOU art Christ, the Son of the living God.

When genuflecting on leaving church, say:

WE adore and praise Thee, most holy Lord Jesus Christ, because by Thy holy cross Thou hast redeemed the world.

(Ind. of 100 days, before the tabernacle or 300 days, at exposition.—BEN. XV. March 22, 1917.)

The Forty Hours Adoration

This devotion consists in solemn exposition of the Blessed Sacrament on the altar for forty hours, in memory of the forty hours during which the body of our Lord remained in the sepulchre.

In order to make the Forty Hours and gain the plenary indulgence attached, it is necessary to make at least one visit during the three days, and to go to confession and Holy Communion in any church on one of the three days, or on the day before.

Prayer of Saint Thérèse

VEILED in the white Host, O my Well-beloved, how meek and humble of heart dost Thou show Thyself to me! Thou couldst not stoop lower to teach me humility, and I, to respond to Thy love, desire to put myself in the lowest place and share Thy humiliations, that I may have part with Thee in the kingdom of Heaven.

I beseech Thee, my Jesus, to send me some humiliations each time that I shall attempt to put myself above others.

Hymn of St. Thomas Aquinas

I ADORE Thee humbly, O Thou hidden God,
Who beneath these figures truly dost abide.
All my light is darkness contemplating Thee.
Lo! my heart lies prostrate to Love's mystery.

Seeing, touching, tasting, fail in proving Thee;
But Thy word suffices given sacredly.
Know we nothing truer ever can be heard,
Than the words of Jesus Who is Truth's own Word.

On the cross was hidden Thy divinity,
But these veils hide likewise Thy humanity;
I, in both believing, offer my belief,
Praying for Thy pardon with the dying thief.

Thy open wounds transfigured I may not behold,
But confess with Thomas: Thou art Lord and God!

Grant my soul a burning faith; light it from above.

Be Thou all my treasure! Be Thou all my love!

O remembrance lasting of the Crucified!
Living Bread sustaining those for whom He died!

Make me a consuming fire drawing life
from Thee,

Yield my soul Thy sweetness; let it taste and see!

Like a loving pelican, feed me, Jesus,
Lord;

I am all unholy; wash me in Thy Blood.
In that life-blood flowing o'er the world in pain,

Though a drop had cleansed it of its mighty stain.

Jesus, Love, here present on the altar veiled,
O fulfil my longing when Thou art revealed —

To behold the vision of Thy holy face
And be rapt forever in its perfect peace.

An Act of Reparation for Blasphemies Uttered Against the Holy Name

O JESUS, Son of the living God, our Saviour and Redeemer, behold us prostrate at Thy feet. We beg pardon, and make this act of reparation for all the blasphemies uttered against Thy holy Name, for all the outrages committed against Thee in the most holy Sacrament of the altar, for all irreverence shown to Thy most blessed and immaculate Mother, and for all the calumnies spoken against Thy Spouse, our holy mother, the Catholic Church. O Jesus, who didst say: "Whatever you shall ask the Father in My Name, that I will do," we pray and beseech Thee for our brethren who are living in danger of sin, that Thou wouldst preserve them from the seductions of apostasy. Save them who stand over the abyss; give them light charity. And therefore, most merciful

Christ the King

Act of Consecration

MOST sweet Jesus, Redeemer of the human race, look down upon us humbly prostrate before Thy altar. We are Thine, and Thine we wish to be; but to be more surely united with Thee, behold, each one of us freely consecrates himself today to Thy most Sacred Heart. Many indeed have never known Thee; many too, despising Thy precepts, have rejected Thee. Have mercy on them all, most merciful Jesus, and draw them to Thy Sacred Heart. Be Thou King, O Lord, not only of the faithful who have never forsaken Thee, but also of the prodigal children who have abandoned Thee. Grant that they may quickly return to their Father's house, lest they die of wretchedness and hunger. Be Thou King of those who are deceived by erroneous opinions or whom discord keeps aloof, and call them back to the harbor of truth and unity of faith, so that soon there may be but one flock and one Shepherd. Be Thou King of all those who are still involved in the darkness of idolatry or of Islamism, and refuse not to draw them all into the light and Kingdom of God. Turn Thine eyes of mercy toward the children of that race, once Thy chosen people. Of old they called down upon themselves the Blood of the Saviour; may It now descend upon them a laver of redemption and of life. Grant, O Lord, to Thy Church assurance of freedom and immunity from harm; give peace and order to all nations, and make the earth resound from pole to pole with one cry: Praise to the Divine Heart that wrought our salvation; to It be glory and honor forever.

V. Send forth Thy spirit, and they shall be created.

R. And Thou shalt renew the face of the earth.

Act of Consecration

O HOLY Spirit, divine Spirit of light and love, I consecrate to Thee my understanding, heart and will, my whole being for time and for eternity.  Thou heavenly Gift of God most high;
 Thou Font of life, and Fire of love
 || : And sweet Anointing from above. : ||

Drive far away our deadly foe
 And peace for evermore bestow;
 If Thou be our preventing Guide
 || : No evil can our steps betide. : ||

Praise we the Father and the Son
 And Holy Spirit, with Thee One;
 And may the Son on us bestow
 || : The gifts that from the Spirit flow. : ||

May my heart be nailed to the cross of Jesus so as never to be separated from His love.

for me.

Prayers for the Dying

In danger of death, send for the priest. On a table in the sick-room have ready a blessed candle, small bowl and shallow saucer, silver spoon, two linen napkins and a handful of cotton. The priest will arrive bearing the Sacred Host, so meet him at the entrance with proper reverence and as few words as possible, holding in one hand a lighted candle. Awaiting his arrival, the following prayer may be said:

V. We adore Thee, O Christ, and we bless Thee.

R. Because by Thy holy cross Thou hast redeemed the world.

O God, who for our redemption didst leave Thy home in heaven to dwell amongst us and show to us the way which leads to Thy Father's home, have mercy on us, that we may receive the full benefits of Thy sufferings, passion and death which Thou didst so lovingly offer in ransom for our souls.

We have sinned, O Lord, through our years of life and now in the shadow of death we realise the true meaning of our wrongdoing. We have offended Thee, dear Jesus, in thought, word and deed. Have mercy on us, have mercy. We are weak; strengthen us in Thy sight. We are sinful; cleanse us with true contrition for our offenses, so that we may appear before Thee stripped naked of this world and its wickedness. Thou art near, my God, and I hear Thee calling me to prepare for my appearance. I, a sinful mortal, must account to Thee for my every thought, word and deed.

Act of Contrition

O MY God! I am heartily sorry for having offended Thee, and I detest all my sins, because I dread the loss of heaven and the pains of hell, but most of all because they offend Thee, my God, who art all-good and deserving of all my love. I firmly resolve, with the help of Thy grace, to confess my sins, to do penance, and to amend my life.

PRAYER FOR THE CHURCH, ETC.

Composed by Archbishop Carroll,
 A. D. 1800

WE pray Thee, O almighty and eternal God, Who through Jesus Christ hast revealed Thy glory to all nations, to preserve the works of Thy mercy; that Thy Church, being spread through the whole world, may continue, with unchanging faith, in the confession of Thy name.

We pray Thee, Who alone art good and holy, to endow with heavenly knowledge, sincere zeal, and sanctity of life our Holy Father, Pope, N., the Vicar of our Lord Jesus Christ in the government of His Church; our own Bishop, (or Archbishop) N. (if he is not consecrated, our Bishop-elect); all other Bishops, prelates, and pastors of the Church; and especially those who are appointed to exercise among us the functions of the holy ministry, and conduct Thy people into the ways of salvation.

We pray Thee, O God of might, wisdom, and justice, through Whom authority is rightly administered, laws are enacted, and judgment decreed, assist, with Thy Holy Spirit of counsel and fortitude, the President of these United States, that his administration may be conducted in righteousness, and be eminently useful to Thy people, over whom he presides, by encouraging due respect for virtue and religion; by a faithful execution of the laws in justice and mercy; and by restraining vice and immorality. Let the light of Thy divine wisdom direct the deliberations of Congress, and shine forth in all the proceedings and laws framed for our rule and government; so that they may tend to the preservation of peace, the promotion of national happiness, the increase of industry, sobriety, and useful knowledge, and may perpetuate to us the blessings of equal liberty.

We pray for his Excellency the Governor of this State, for the members of the Assembly, for all Judges, Magistrates, and other officers who are appointed to guard our political welfare; that they may be enabled, by Thy powerful protection, to discharge the duties of their respective stations with honesty and ability.

We recommend likewise to Thy unbounded mercy all our brethren and fellow-citizens, throughout the United States, that they may be blessed in the knowledge, and sanctified in the observance of Thy most holy law; that they may be preserved in union, and in that peace which the world cannot give; and, after enjoying the blessings of this life, be admitted to those which are eternal.

Finally, we pray Thee, O Lord of mercy, to remember the souls of Thy servants departed who are gone before us with the sign of faith, and repose in the sleep of peace: the souls of our parents, relatives, and friends; of those who, when living, were members of this congregation; and particularly of such as are lately deceased; of all benefactors who, by their donations or legacies to this Church, witnessed their zeal for the decency of divine worship, and proved their claim to our grateful and charitable remembrance. To these, O Lord, and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we beseech Thee, a place of refreshment, light, and everlasting peace, through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord and Saviour.

PRAYERS FOR A JOURNEY

IN the way of peace and prosperity may the Lord, the almighty and merciful, direct our steps. And may the archangel Raphael accompany us on the way, that we may return to our home in peace, safety, and joy.

O God, Who madest the sons of Israel to walk with dry feet through the midst of the sea, and Who didst open to the three Magi, by the guiding of a star, the way that led to Thee; grant to us, we beseech Thee, a prosperous journey, and a time of tranquillity, that, attended by Thy holy angel, we may happily arrive at that place whither we are journeying, and finally at the haven of eternal salvation.

Give ear, O Lord, we beseech Thee, to our supplications, and dispose the way of Thy servants in the blessedness of Thy salvation, that amidst all the various changes of this our life and pilgrimage we may ever be protected by Thy help.

Vouchsafe to Thy people, we beseech Thee, almighty God, that they may walk onward in the way of salvation, and, by following the exhortations of the blessed forerunner John, may come safe to the presence of Him, Whom he preached, Jesus Christ Thy Son our Lord, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever.

PRAYER FOR SUCCESS IN WORK

GLORIOUS St. Joseph, model of all those who are devoted to labor, obtain for me the grace to work conscientiously, putting the call of duty above my many sins; to work with gratitude and joy, considering it an honor to employ and develop, by means of labor, the gifts received from God; to work with order, peace, moderation and patience, never recoiling before weariness or difficulties; to work, above all, with purity of intention, and with detachment from self, having always death before my eyes and the account which I must render of time lost, of talents wasted, of good omitted,

Let me always remember to be submissive to my superiors, condescending to my inferiors, faithful to my friends, and charitable to my enemies.

Grant, O Jesus, that I may remember Thy precept and example, by loving my enemies, bearing with injuries, doing good to them that persecute me, and praying for them that slander me.

Assist me to overcome sensuality by mortification, avarice by alms-deeds, anger by meekness, and tepidity by devotion.

O my God, make me prudent in my undertakings, courageous in dangers, patient in afflictions, and humble in prosperity.

Grant that I may be ever attentive at my prayers, temperate at my meals, diligent in my employments, and constant in my good resolutions.

Let my conscience be ever upright and pure, my exterior modest, my conversation edifying, and my life according to rule.

Assist me, that I may continually labor to overcome nature, to correspond with Thy grace, to keep Thy commandments, and to work out my salvation.

Help me to obtain holiness of life by a sincere confession of my sins, by a devout reception of the Body of Christ, by a continual recollection of mind, and by a pure intention of heart.

Discover to me, O my God, the nothingness of this world, the greatness of heaven, the shortness of time, and the length of eternity.

Grant that I may prepare for death, that I may fear Thy judgments, that I may escape hell, and in the end obtain heaven, through the merits of our Lord Jesus Christ.

PRAYERS OF THANKSGIVING

O GOD, Whose mercies are without number, and the treasure of Whose goodness is infinite; we render thanks to Thy most gracious Majesty for the gifts Thou hast bestowed upon us, evermore beseeching Thy clemency; that as Thou grantest the petitions of those who ask Thee, Thou wilt never forsake them, but wilt prepare them for the rewards to come.

O GOD, Who hast taught the hearts of the faithful by the light of the Holy Spirit: grant us, by the same Spirit, to relish what is right, and evermore to rejoice in His consolation.

O GOD, Who sufferest none that hope in Thee to be afflicted overmuch, but dost listen graciously to their prayers; we render Thee thanks because Thou hast received our supplications and wishes, and we most humbly beseech Thee that we may evermore be protected from all adversities. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Angel of God, my guardian dear,
To whom His love commits me here,
Ever this day be at my side
To light and guard, to rule and guide.

O MERCIFUL God, grant that I may eagerly desire, carefully search out, truthfully acknowledge, and ever perfectly fulfil all things which are pleasing to Thee, to the praise and glory of Thy Name. Amen.

O GOD, the CREATOR and REDEEMER of all the faithful, grant to the souls of Thy servants departed the remission of all their sins, that through pious supplications they may obtain the pardon they have always desired. Who livest and reignest world without end. Amen.

PRAYER FOR SISTERS

GRANT peace, strength and encouragement, O Lord, to those holy women whom Thou hast called for the instruction of youth. In their arduous duties be Thou ever by their side to lead them on in the continuation of their noble work.

THE MEMORARE

REMEMBER, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that any one who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession, was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my mother; to thee I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful; O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions; but in thy clemency hear and answer me.

A HUSBAND'S PRAYER

O LORD, my God, Who hast entrusted to my care a devoted wife, grant that I may always bear in mind the responsibilities which I have assumed and properly cherish, encourage and lead on to holy happiness the helpmate Thou hast given me. Keep before me always the exemplary life of Saint Joseph, that humbly following his example I may receive the light and strength to make my home a true Catholic household, united and determined to carry on for the greater honor and glory of God.

A FATHER'S PRAYER

MY Lord and my God, Who in Thy infinite wisdom hast blessed me with the privilege of parenthood and entrusted to my care the innocent souls and bodily welfare of my children, I beg of Thee to light my path that I may lead them on in the ways of virtue, and by example and habit prove myself a true man of God.

A SON'S PRAYER

MY Lord and My God, Who hast commanded me to honor my father and my mother, give to me the strength and determination to be a true Catholic son, and thereby bring peace and contentment to my loving parents who so zealously protected and led me on through my early years.

PRAYER IN CHOOSING A STATE IN LIFE

O MY GOD, Thou who art the God of wisdom and of counsel, Thou who readest in my heart the sincere will to please Thee alone, and to govern myself with regard to my choice of a state of life, entirely in conformity with Thy most holy desire; grant me, by the intercession of the most blessed Virgin, my Mother, and of my holy patrons, specially of St. Joseph and St. Aloysius, the grace to know what state I ought to choose, and when known to embrace it, so that in it I may be able to pursue and increase Thy glory, work out my salvation, and merit that heavenly reward which Thou hast promised to those who do Thy holy will. Amen.

PRAYER FOR A HOLY DEATH

DIVINE JESUS, incarnate Son of God, who for our salvation didst vouchsafe to be born in a stable, to pass Thy life in poverty, trials, and misery, and to die amid the sufferings of the Cross, I entreat Thee in the hour of my death, say to thy divine Father: "Father, forgive him"; say to Thy beloved Mother: "behold thy son"; say to my soul: "this day thou shalt be with me in Paradise." My God, my God, forsake me not in that hour. "I thirst;" truly, my God, my soul thirsts after Thee, Who art the fountain of living waters. My life passes like a shadow; yet a little while and all will be consummated. Wherefore, O my adorable SAVIOUR, from this moment, for all eternity, "into thy hands I commend my spirit." LORD JESUS, receive my soul. Amen.

PRAYERS FOR A HAPPY DEATH

O LORD JESUS, God of goodness, and FATHER of mercies, I draw nigh to Thee with a contrite and humble heart; to Thee I recommend the last hour of my life, and that judgment which awaits me afterwards.

When my feet, benumbed with death, shall admonish me, that my course in this life is drawing to an end, merciful JESUS, have mercy on me.

When my hands, cold and trembling, shall no longer be able to clasp the crucifix, and shall let it fall against my will on my bed of suffering, merciful JESUS, have mercy on me.

When my eyes, dim and troubled at the approach of death, shall fix themselves on Thee, my last and only support, merciful JESUS, have mercy on me.

When my lips, cold and trembling, pronounce for the last time Thy adorable Name, merciful JESUS, have mercy on me.

When my face, pale and livid, shall inspire the beholders with pity and dismay; when my hair, bathed in the sweat of death, and stiffening on my head, shall forebode my approaching end, merciful JESUS, have mercy on me.

When my ears, soon to be shut for ever to the discourse of men, shall be open to that irrevocable decree which is to fix my doom for all eternity, merciful JESUS, have mercy on me.

When my imagination, agitated by dreadful spectres, shall be sunk in an abyss of anguish; when my soul, affrighted with the sight of my iniquities and the terrors of Thy judgments, shall have to fight against the angels of darkness, who will endeavor to conceal Thy mercies from my eyes, and plunge me into despair, merciful JESUS, have mercy on me.

When my poor heart, oppressed with suffering and exhausted by its continual struggles with the enemies of its salvation, shall feel the pangs of death, merciful JESUS, have mercy on me.

When the last tear, the forerunner of my dissolution, shall drop from my eyes, receive it as a sacrifice of expiation for my sins; grant that I may expire the victim of penance; and then, in that dreadful moment, merciful JESUS, have mercy on me.

When my friends and relations, encircling my bed, shall be moved with compassion for me, and invoke Thy clemency in my behalf, merciful JESUS, have mercy on me.

When I shall have lost the use of my senses, when the world shall have vanished from my sight, when I shall groan with anguish in my last agony and with the pangs of death, merciful JESUS, have mercy on me.

When my last sighs shall force my soul to issue from my body, accept them as born of a loving impatience to come to Thee; merciful JESUS, have mercy on me.

When my soul, trembling on my lips, shall bid adieu to the world, and leave my body lifeless, pale and cold, receive this separation as a homage which I willingly pay to Thy Divine Majesty, and in that last moment of my mortal life, merciful JESUS, have mercy on me.

When at length my soul, admitted to Thy presence, shall first behold the immortal splendor of Thy Majesty, reject it not, but receive me into the loving embrace of Thy mercy, where I may for ever sing Thy praises; merciful JESUS, have mercy on me.

Let us Pray

O GOD, who hast doomed all men to die, but hast concealed from all the hour of their death, grant that I may pass my days in the practice of holiness and justice, and that I may be made worthy to quit this world in the embrace of Thy love, through the merits of our LORD JESUS CHRIST, who liveth and reigneth with Thee in the unity of the HOLY SPIRIT. Amen.

LOOKING TO GOD ALONE

TAKE no great account of who may be for thee or against thee, but mind and take care that God be with thee in every thing thou dost. Have a good conscience, and God will sufficiently defend thee; for he whom God will help, no man's malice can hurt. If thou knowest only how to be silent and to endure, doubt not but that thou shalt experience help from the Lord. (II. 2.)

The Manner of Serving a Priest at Mass

INTROITO ad altare Dei.

S. Ad Deum, qui lætificat juventutem meam.

P. Judica me, Deus, et discerne causam meam de gente non sancta: ab homine iniquo et doloso erue me.

S. Quia tu es, Deus, fortitudo mea: quare me repulisti, et quare tristis incedo, dum affligit me inimicus?

P. Emitte lucem tuam, et veritatem tuam: ipsa me deduxerunt et adduxerunt in montem sanctum tuum et in tabernacula tua.

P. Kyrie eleison.

P. Dominus vobiscum. S. Et cum spiritu tuo.

[At a Bishop's Mass:

P. Pax vobis. S. Et cum spiritu tuo.]

When the Priest says, Flectamus genua, as is the case a few times in the year, answer, Levate.

P. Per omnia sæcula sæculorum.
S. Amen.

At the end of the Epistle say, Deo gratias; then remove the book to the other side of the Altar, and always kneel or stand on the side opposite to that on which the book has been placed.

P. Dominus vobiscum. S. Et cum spiritu tuo.

P. Sequentia sancti evangelii secundum N.

Making the sign of the Cross on your forehead, mouth, and breast, say:

S. Gloria tibi, Domine.

Stand during the Gospel, and at the end say:

S. Laus tibi, Christe.

B. Dominus vobiscum. S. Et cum spiritu tuo.

Here give the wine and water, and prepare the basin, water, and towel for the Priest. When the Priest has washed his fingers, kneel in your former place, and answer:

P. Orate fratres, etc.

S. Suscipiat Dominus sacrificium de manibus tuis ad laudem et gloriam nominis sui, ad utilitatem quoque nostram, totiusque Ecclesiæ suæ sanctæ.

P. Per omnia sæcula sæculorum.
S. Amen.

P. Dominus vobiscum. S. Et cum spiritu tuo.

P. Sursum corda. S. Habemus ad Dominum.

P. Gratias agamus Domino Deo nostro. S. Dignum et iustum est.

At Sanctus, Sanctus, Sanctus ring the bell. When you see the Priest spread his hands over the chalice, give warning, by the bell, of the Consecration which is about to be made. Then holding up the chasuble with your left hand, and having the bell in your right, ring during the elevation of the host and of the chalice. As often as you pass by the Blessed Sacrament make a genuflection.

P. Per omnia sæcula sæculorum.
S. Amen.

P. Et ne nos inducas in tentationem.

S. Sed libera nos a malo.

P. Per omnia sæcula sæculorum.
S. Amen.

P. Pax Domini sit semper vobiscum.
S. Et cum spiritu tuo.

When the Priest says Domine, non sum dignus, ring the bell; and after his Communion, if there are communicants, prepare the cloth and say the Confiteor. After they have received, serve the Priest with wine and water, for the ablutions. Then remove the book to the other side of the Altar, take away the cloth from the communicants, and return to your place.

P. Dominus vobiscum. S. Et cum spiritu tuo.

P. Per omnia sæcula sæculorum.
S. Amen.

P. Dominus vobiscum. S. Et cum spiritu tuo.

P. Ite; missa est: or, Benedicamus Domino. S. Deo gratias.

In Masses for the dead:

P. Requiescant in pace. S. Amen.

[At a Bishop's Mass:

P. Adjutorium nostrum in nomine Domini.

S. Qui fecit cælum et terram.

P. Sit nomen Domini benedictum.

S. Ex hoc nunc et usque in sæculum.]

Benedicat vos omnipotens Deus, Pater ✠ et Filius et Spiritus Sanctus.
S. Amen.

Remove the book to the Gospel side, if it be left open; kneel as you pass, to receive the Priest's blessing, answering Amen.

P. Dominus vobiscum. S. Et cum spiritu tuo.

P. Initium (or, Sequentia) sancti evangelii, etc.

S. Gloria tibi, Domine.
